

RESUME'

EDWARD E. McDANIEL, ESQUIRE

March 1986

LABOR ARBITRATOR

Personal Data:

Education: B.A., Howard University
Washington, D.C. - 1958
J.D., Golden Gate University
San Francisco - 1967

Profession: Attorney/Arbitrator
California Bar - 1968

Business

Addresses: The Bigelow, Suite #1624
Bigelow Square
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219
(412) 281-4623 or 281-6290

One Hundred-Eight Noe Street
San Francisco, California 94114
(415) 863-8146

Prior Experience:

Officer (1st Lt.),
U.S. Army Military Police
Corps., U.S.A.R.
Nuremburg, Germany
1959 - 1961

Examiner, Bureau of Employees'
Compensation
U.S. Department of Labor
Washington, D.C. and
Boston, Massachusetts
1961 - 1964

Field Examiner, Labor Management Relations
National Labor Relations
Board, Regional Offices
San Francisco, California
1964 - 1969

Arbitration Experience:

Past and present experience includes full scope of private and public sector labor-management "grievance" and "interest" disputes' arbitration, mediation, conciliation, consultation and special conflict resolutions' services, as a "Third Party" Neutral. Experience includes routine handling of special and technical subject matters (e.g., job classifications and rates, incentive administration, etcetera) of dispute--in, essentially, all Industries and Government Levels.

Prior Umpireships:

United States Steel Corporation and United Steelworkers of America - Member,
Board of Arbitration --- Associate National Empire - 1969-74

Alan Wood Steel Company and United Steelworkers of America - Sole Umpire, 1975-79

American Can Company and United Steelworkers of America - Sole Umpire, 1975-79

Noranda Aluminum Company and United Steelworkers of America - Sole Umpire, 1976-79

Ford Motor Company and United Automobile Workers' Locals - Associate National Empire, 1982-84

Prior Panels:

Major League Baseball Club Owners and Major League Baseball Players Association,
National Salary Disputes Panel, 1974-75

United States Steel Corporation and United Steelworkers of America - Special
Arbitrator, 1975-77

Current Umpireships:

LTV Corporation and United Steelworkers of America - Associate National Empire, 1985-continuing

U.S. Department of Energy, Personnel Security Program Disputes Panel, Chicago
Region, 1982-continuing

Current "Direct" Panels:

Private Sector:

Marion Power Shovel Company and United Steelworkers of America - Associate, 1975-continuing

Appalachian Regional Hospitals and United Steelworkers of America, 1983-continuing

Bituminous Coal Producers, Contractors' and Operators' Associations and United Mine Workers of America, Various Districts and Locals, 1981-continuing
Lukens Steel Company and United Steelworkers of America, 1978-continuing
Ashland Petroleum Company and Oil, Chemical & Atomic Workers International Union, AFL - CIO, Local No. 3-214, 1984-continuing
Enduro Stainless Steel Incorporated and United Steelworkers of America, District #27, 1985-continuing
FMC Corporation and United Steelworkers of America, 1980-continuing
National Mine Construction Agreement (Association of Bituminous Contractors) and United Mine Workers of America, 1975-continuing

Public Sector:

U.S. Department of Energy (A.E.C. - E.R.D.A.) and various "Contract" Employers and Unions, 1972-continuing Allegheny County (Pennsylvania) Community College and various labor organizations, 1977-continuing

Current "Agency" Panels: (Public and Private Sector)

American Arbitration Association, National Panel, 1972-continuing
Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, National Panel, 1972-continuing Pennsylvania (State) Bureau of Mediation, State Panel, 1973-continuing National Mediation Board, National Panel, 1977-continuing
United States Postal Service, Back Pay Recovery Panel and Postal Workers Unions, 1974-continuing

Arbitration Fee and Expense Data:

Per Diem Rates:

For Grievance Disputes - $500.00 per day

For Interest Disputes - $600.00 per day

Fee Applications:

Per diem rate applied to all days and/or substantial part of day spent in hearing, meetings or consultations and travel therefor, with and for Party Clients in Arbitration.

Late Cancellations:

A one (1) per diem day fee charged for late cancellations and/or postponements within two (2) weeks (i.e. 14 calendar days) of any dates offered, selected and set aside for use by the Parties.

Docketing Fee:

A $100.00 fee (payable in equal [$50] shares by each Party) charged for hearing dates arranged and set aside for use by the Parties.

Expenses:

Reasonable and routine expenses incurred in connection with Appointments--to include long distance communications, travel, room and board, and other authorized activities--of and for the Parties, in Arbitration.

Affiliations:

California Bar Association
American Bar Association
National Academy of Arbitrators
American Arbitration Association